Join the TRINITY CHORISTERS

The Chorister program at Trinity Church offers an extraordinary opportunity to learn music, singing, leadership, teamwork, responsibility, commitment, have fun, and to see the world! Choristers learn about the faith and engage in the life of the church through their active leadership of worship. Parents say that the Chorister program is a deeply transformative experience for their children.

To learn more about the Chorister program please email Colin Lynch, Director of Music at clynch@trinitychurchboston.org.

The Boston Busing Crisis: Fifty Years Later

Sun., 11:15 am, Lloyd Forum

10.13

Fifty years ago, a federal judge ordered Boston to integrate its public school system through busing, a decision the Boston Globe recently called "the biggest broken promise in the city's modern history." In this Forum on Sun., Oct. 13, Trinity parishioner and Globe reporter Adrian Walker facilitates a discussion reflecting on the lasting legacy of the busing crisis and the work of Trinity Boston Connects to heal the effects of systemic racism on Boston's youth of color.

10.13 Stewardship Sunday

Stewardship Sunday is Oct. 13, marking the launch of the annual pledge campaign for the upcoming year. Pledge packets will be mailed out the week after that Sunday.

Pledges will be gratefully accepted at any time over the following weeks, and we will celebrate the ingathering of pledges as a community on Sun., Nov. 17, both during worship services and in the Forum hour.

EVERY SUNDAY starting 9.15

Nursery Care 8:30 am-12:30 pm in the Parish House

Share Photos for the Altar of Remembrance
