All sing the Antiphon as indicated.*

The Lord___ is my light___ and my sal - va - tion.

The LORD is my light and my salvation;
whom then shall I fear? *
the LORD is the strength of my life;
of whom then shall I be afraid?

One thing have I asked of the LORD;
one thing I seek; *
that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days
of my life;

To behold the fair beauty of the LORD *
and to seek him in his temple.

For in the day of trouble he shall keep me safe
in his shelter; *
he shall hide me in the secrecy of his dwelling
and set me high upon a rock.

ANTIPHON

Even now he lifts up my head *
above my enemies round about me.

Therefore I will offer in his dwelling an oblation
with sounds of great gladness; *
I will sing and make music to the LORD.

Hearken to my voice, O LORD, when I call; *
have mercy on me and answer me.

You speak in my heart and say, "Seek my face." *
Your face, LORD, will I seek.

Hide not your face from me, *
nor turn away your servant in displeasure.

You have been my helper;
cast me not away; *
do not forsake me, O God of my salvation.

Sermon

The Rev. Samuel T. Lloyd III

Nicene Creed Spoken by all, standing.

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People Remain standing or kneel.

The prayer leader bids the prayers from the people. The response is "Lord, have mercy."

The Presider offers a concluding collect and the people respond "Amen."

Confession of Sin & Absolution

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Remain standing, or you may kneel.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace All stand.

The peace of the Lord be always with you. And also with you.

Children return to the service.

It supports our parish ministries and service to the community.*

Offertory Anthem Sung by the choir.

Richard Webster (b. 1952)

One thing have I desired of the Lord, which I will require:
even that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life,
to behold the fair beauty of the Lord, and to visit his temple.
For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his tabernacle:
yea, in the secret place of his dwelling shall he hide me,
he shall set me up upon a rock of stone.
And now shall he lift up above mine head above mine enemies round about me.
Therefore will I offer in his dwelling an oblation with great gladness:
I will sing and speak praises unto the Lord.

Ps 27:4-7

Music During Communion Communion begins in silence.

Anthem

C. Hubert H. Parry (1848-1918)

Dear Lord and Father of mankind,
 forgive our foolish ways!
 Reclothe us in our rightful mind,
 in purer lives thy service find,
 in deeper reverence, praise.
 In simple trust like theirs who heard,
 beside the Syrian sea,
 the gracious calling of the Lord,
 let us, like them, without a word,
 rise up and follow thee.

Breathe through the heats of our desire
 thy coolness and thy balm;
 let sense be dumb, let flesh retire;
 speak through the earthquake, wind, and
 fire,
 O still, small voice of calm.

John Greenleaf Whittier (d. 1892);
 Hymn 653, st. 1-2, 4-5

Drop thy still dews of quietness,
 till all our strivings cease;
 take from our souls the strain
 and stress,
 and let our ordered lives confess
 the beauty of thy peace.

Postcommunion Prayer All stand.

Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom.

And now, Holy God, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.

To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

*When Lay Eucharistic Visitors are taking communion to the sick or homebound, these words are said, In the name of this congregation, I send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood. We who are many are one body, for we all share one bread and one cup.

Going Into the World

Blessing After the prayer, the People respond, "Amen."
