We Are God's Plan: The Source of Our Meaning and Purpose

Lenten Sundays,
11:15 am, Lloyd Forum

Building on last fall's two-part series, 'Beyond the God of Good Outcomes,' explore with Trinity's Rector, the Rev. Morgan S. Allen, the demanding theological idea that God—loving creator rather than scheming puppeteer—has entrusted responsibility for the cosmos to none other than each of us. Weaving theological, philosophical, and popular-culture resources, Morgan will present God's gift of freedom as the Christian hope's essential ground.

Made with Love

Love comes in all forms—we're looking for those who share love particularly through cooking and baking! A gifted meal or baked good can be especially holy—we are looking for those who are willing to make soups, stews, chilis and baked goods to stock our freezer for those in our parish and community who might need a little homemade grace.

To sign up as a cook, contact the Rev. Kit Lonergan, klonergan@trinitychurchboston.org

2025 Price Lecturer:
The Very Rev. Dr. Cynthia Briggs Kittredge

Dean Emerita of the Seminary of the Southwest, Anglican biblical scholar, feminist theologian, and poet, the Very Rev. Dr. Cynthia Briggs Kittredge, received degrees from Williams College and Harvard University, and was ordained to the priesthood in the Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts. Dr. Kittredge will join our Lenten explorations for two Sundays – March 23 and 30 – as a preacher and as the 2025 Price Lecturer.

& 3.30

On March 23, Dr. Kittredge will preach all three services, and, at the 11:15 am Forum hour, she and Rector Morgan Allen will share a conversation about scriptural engagement. Bringing perspectives from the pew, pulpit, and academy, they will ask one another: Who wrote the Gospels and why does that matter? What does it mean to "believe" scripture? How do I make sense of scriptural passages that don't make sense?

On March 30, Morgan will preach all three services, and Dr. Kittredge will build on the prior week's discussion, presenting a lecture entitled, "Faithful and Critical Engagement with the Theology of Luke the Evangelist." Liberation theologians laud the gospel of Luke as the gospel of the poor, yet others criticize the same text for its accommodation to empire. As we engage the gospel with historical perspective and poetic imagination, we will encounter Jesus' vision for healing, forgiveness, and salvation for all flesh.

Palm Sunday Procession & Worship

Sun., 8 am, 10 am, 5 pm, Copley Square & Church

Join in a Palm Sunday procession outside around the Church, and in-person Palm Sunday Holy Eucharist in our Copley Square building. Our 10 am Palm Sunday service will be livestreamed to trinitychurchboston.org/live-worship

Pysanky Egg Decorating 1 pm, Commons

Pysanky is the Ukrainian name for a wax-resist decorative egg, the pysanka. Pysanka comes from the verb pysaty, meaning "to write", as the designs are written onto the egg with beeswax, rather than painted. This practice is a very ancient and beautiful tradition, most commonly done before Easter. Once finished, these pysanky can be used on the Easter table or as house decorations.

Alona Popova will be our pysankarka for this class on Palm Sunday. Sign up at trinitychurchboston.org/pysanky, or scan the QR code

Decorate the Church for Easter

Just like the women going to the tomb in the wee hours, all of us have an opportunity to come and prepare the space for Easter Morning and the great celebration of Easter! There is a place for you and the whole family; consider how you are called to be a part of the team as we, too, find the tomb empty and celebrate the resurrection!
